University of Florida College of Liberal Arts and Sciences

What is the Experiential Scholars Program?

The Experiential Scholars Program at the University of Florida is a supplemental system that encourages students already engaging with the opportunities offered by the Beyond120 program to maximize their interaction. The program operates on a point-based system that requires students complete 20 points by the time they graduate in order to be recognized as an Experiential Scholar. Students may exercise creative freedom in mixing and matching Beyond120 courses, excursions, study abroad programs, internships and other opportunities of the like that aid in developing an understanding of the professional world and the versatility of a CLAS degree.

Beyond120 Experiential Scholars are eligible to receive the following:

- 0 - 2 Points - Participation in the Beyond120 Experiential Scholars Canvas Group
(Your must enroll in the Beyond120 Canvas page in order to be added to the group)
- 3 - 19 Points - Priority registration for Beyond120 events and excursions.
- Beyond120 lapel pin.
- 20+ Points - Assistance creating a personalized e-portfolio.
- Beyond120 graduation regalia and padfolio.
