About the University

The Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Israel's first university, is a multidisciplinary institution of higher learning and research where intellectual pioneering, cutting-edge discovery and a passion for learning flourish. It is a center of international repute, consistently ranked as the top university in Israel and among the top 100 worldwide. The Hebrew University is a leader in bringing about change in the global community in many fields, including science, economics, agriculture, environmental quality & public health.

Requirements/Eligibility

- Open to all majors, however, the program best fits students majoring in humanities and social science areas
- Language of Instruction: English
- Required GPA: 3.0
- Students must have completed 12 hours of coursework at UF
- Each applicant must be nominated by UF and then apply to the exchange partner as an international exchange student

Location

Jerusalem is a wonderful mosaic of cultures, religions, sights, sounds, and tastes. People come from all over the world to visit this city, which is holy to Jews, Muslims, and Christians. It is also innovative and highly entrepreneurial, the capital of the "Start-Up Nation." The tech industry is booming, and you can find a great range of trendy restaurants, shops, and forward-thinking businesses.

Housing

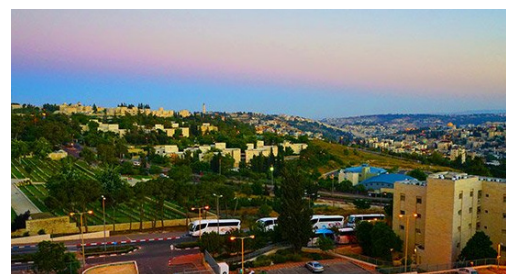

Students are mainly housed in the Student Village complex located on Mount Scopus, overlooking Jerusalem, and within walking distance of the university. You will live in single bedrooms in air-conditioned suites. Each bedroom contains a bed, desk, chair, and closet. Kitchen and bathroom facilities are shared.

Application Deadlines

Fall and Academic Year: early May

Spring: mid October

Note: Some exchange programs have earlier deadlines.

Tuition

Tuition at the host school is waived for exchange students, who instead pay tuition directly to the University of Florida at their usual tuition rate.

Financial Aid

University of Florida students needing financial aid should apply through UF Student Financial Affairs. Normal eligibility for aid may be used while studying abroad as an exchange student. This includes using the Bright Futures scholarship and the Florida Pre-Paid College Plan.

Scholarships

For fall, spring, and academic-year scholarships administered by the University of Florida International Center, the deadlines for application are: early March for programs starting in fall; and early October for programs starting in spring. Applications forms are available on the UF International Center web site: www.internationalcenter.ufl.edu

Health Insurance

Students will be billed for mandatory international health insurance which includes emergency medical assistance.

Fees Due

A $425 non-refundable fee is required within seven days of applying online. Students who will receive financial aid may contact the University of Florida International Center to arrange deferment until the disbursement of their financial aid.
