

Internships

Dana Logston, Study Abroad
Coordinator (Internships)

sydney.edu.au/sydney-abroad

Internships

Maximise your experience and enroll in our credit-bearing Internship (ARTS2600)

- 2 Tracks: Industry or Research
- 6 credit point unit of study
- Minimum 120 hours at industry or research work placement
- Workshops for professional development
- Reflective tasks and final project report
- Stand out by developing familiarity with an Australian workplace

Internships - Workshop

Students participate in 5 professional development workshops, topics covered include:

- Australian business culture and workplace practices
- Identifying communication styles
- Strategies for conflict resolution
- How to articulate your overseas internship experience in interviews
- Writing an effective resume and how to respond to selection criteria
- Social media platforms and their use for professional networking and creating and managing a LinkedIn profile

Internships: 2 tracks

Industry Placements:

- Accounting, Economics and Finance
- Advertising, Marketing and Sales
- Architecture and Urban Planning
- Business and Management
- Charity and Conservation
- Education and Tutoring
- Engineering and IT
- Events, Public Relations and Social Media
- Government and Policy
- Media and Communications
- Retail and Fashion
- Science and Research

Research Placements:

Students are matched with an academic from the University of Sydney to learn research methods and assist with a research project in their field of study.

Internships - How it Works

The Placement Process:

- Credit Approval Form
- Internship Handbook which includes Partner Profiles
- Cover Letter and Resume Editing
- Skype Interviews
- We enrol you before arriving in Sydney
- Orientation/Workshop 1

Internship Placements

